Celebrating Donor Funded Awards at the UBC Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences

Updated March 2019
I have been actively involved with the Faculty of Pharmacy, volunteering as a peer tutor for 1st year students, acting as my class representative for CAPSI, and serving as an editor for the UBC Pharmaceutical Sciences Student Journal, while also working part time. This scholarship will help ease the financial burden with being a student.

JULIA HIGGINS
GRADUATING CLASS OF 2016

We are appreciative of the generosity of our donors in supporting awards that recognize and celebrate student and faculty success in education, research and mentorship.

GRADUATE STUDENT AWARDS

DR. DARIO ALBERTON PHARMD SCHOLARSHIP
A scholarship has been endowed through the generous support of family, friends and colleagues in memory of Dr Dario Alberton for an outstanding student entering the Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) program. This award is primarily based on the student’s scholarly achievements and is made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences in consultation with Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

DR. FRANK S. ABBOTT GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP IN PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES
A fellowship is offered annually by Dr. Elizabeth Kwong (B.Sc. (Pharm) 1980, Ph.D. 1984) and Dr. Krishnaswamy Yeleswaram (Ph.D. 1992) for an outstanding graduate student in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences, in honour of Professor and Dean Emeritus Frank S. Abbott. Dr. Abbott joined the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences in 1966 and served as Dean of the Faculty from 1996 to 2002. In 1993, he was awarded the McNeil Award in Recognition of a Significant Contribution to Pharmaceutical Research by the Association of Faculties of Pharmacy of Canada. This fellowship recognizes Dr. Abbott’s role as a supervisor and mentor to dozens of Pharmaceutical Sciences graduate students. The award is made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences, in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

DR. WILLIAM WILSON SIMPSON MEMORIAL AWARD
An award has been endowed in memory of Dr. William Wilson Simpson to a Ph.D. student in the Division of Pharmacology and Toxicology in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences. The award is made on the recommendation of the Faculty to a graduate student in financial need, who has shown interest and potential in the field of pharmacology and demonstrated the qualities of initiative and leadership for which Bill Simpson is so fondly remembered.

GRADUATE STUDENT TRAVEL AWARD IN PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES
Travel awards are offered to enable graduate students in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences to attend conferences or symposia at which they will present a poster or an academic paper. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Faculty in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

A fellowship is offered annually by the Lohn Foundation for an outstanding graduate student in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences. The Lohn Foundation supports a variety of important philanthropic causes in Vancouver including UBC. President Jack Kowarsky and Vice President Alan Bass (B.Sc. (Pharm) 1976) understand the importance of student awards in the recruitment and encouragement of outstanding graduate students in pharmaceutical sciences. The award is made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences, in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

MERCK CANADA PHARMACY DOCTORAL PRIZE
A prize is awarded to the student standing at the head of the graduating class in the Doctor of Pharmacy program, Faculty of Pharmaceutical Science.

MITCHELL-DWIVEDI GRADUATE AWARD IN PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES
Two awards have been endowed by Sarvajna Dwivedi (MSc’88, PhD’92) and his wife, Seema Dwivedi (PhD), in honour of his father, Dr. Rewa Prasad Dwivedi, professor emeritus of Sanskrit at Banaras Hindu University in India, and of his graduate supervisor at UBC, Dr. Alan G. Mitchell, professor emeritus of Pharmaceutics. The awards recognize graduate students in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences who demonstrate research excellence and impact through peer-reviewed journal publication. Eligible candidates must have published, or have been accepted for publication, in any of the top three journals in their discipline. In absence of a peer-reviewed publication, research presented at a prestigious conference, by podium or as poster, will be considered. Preference will be given to students who take an interdisciplinary approach to their research and/or show exceptional inventiveness or initiative. In the case of a truly exceptional candidate, the awards may be given as one award. These are intended to be truly awards for excellence, and are not to replace or otherwise impact any other forms of graduate student funding. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.

PETER JEWESSON GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP IN PHARMACY
Scholarships have been endowed by friends and colleagues of Dr. Peter Jewesson (B.Sc.P. 1978, Ph.D. Pharmaceutical Sciences 1986) for students in the Doctor of Pharmacy Program. The awards are made on the recommendation of the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences.
