

REGISTRATION

UBC has two academic sessions:

Winter (September 1 to April 30) Register in August

Summer (May 1 to August 31) Register in April

A minimum of 30 course credits are required for the M.Sc. degree. All new students (M.Sc. and Ph.D.) are required to take PHAR 590 for credit. All students will also be required to take PHAR 591 (Scholarly Integrity and Ethics). Register in your thesis course (PHAR 549 or PHAR 649) for both the Winter and Summer sessions.

The Student Services Centre \(SSC\) is the portal to all of your academic and financial information. This is where you register, pay fees and much more. Please sign on as soon as possible and change your password. Your password is initially set as your year, month, and date of birth (yymmdd).

For the Winter Session:

ALL graduate students are required to complete the Instructional Skills Workshop offered by the Centre for Teaching, Learning and Technology before completion of their program.

Course offerings and outlines can be found online at UBC Student Services. You can also register online. For any problems with course registration, contact the Faculty's Graduate Office.

Things to Consider When Registering for Courses

1. Discuss your courses and timetable with your supervisor before registering.
2. Note that the SSC will only allow you to register in courses to a maximum of 18 credits per term.

3. For students wishing to transfer from the M.Sc. to the Ph.D. program, you must achieve a minimum average of 80% in 12 credits in which at least 9 credits are at the 500-level or above and in which at least 9 credits are at 80% or above.

You MUST register in the thesis course (PHAR 549B/004 for M.Sc. and PHAR 649/001 for Ph.D. students) during the Winter session (Terms 1 and 2) and the Summer session (PHAR 549B/942 and PHAR 649/941). If you do not continue to register in the thesis course, UBC will assume you have ended your program and will stop paying you.
