Thank you to all who attended the 2019 Alumni Agent of Change event hosted by Dean Coughtrie on March 13th.

This year’s Alumni Agent of Change, Sarvajna Dwivedi, MSc’88, PhD’92 and Future Alumni Agent of Change, Tamara Mihic, BSc(Pharm)’13, PharmD’16, both delivered marvelous presentations about their career trajectories and various accomplishments, which were a true inspiration due to the passion that they have for their respective professions.

Among those who attended were former recipients John Shaske, BSc(Pharm)’78 and Bob Nakagawa, BSc(Pharm)’80, members of the Faculty’s Alumni Advisory Committee, faculty, staff, graduate students, and family and friends of the two recipients.

If you missed the event, the live feed of the presentations can be seen here or you can read about it here.

Nominations for 2020 are now open, please click here for more information.

CALL FOR PHARMACY ADMISSIONS INTERVIEWERS: MAY 4-5, 2019

Each year, selected applicants to the Entry-to-Practice PharmD program are invited to participate in pharmacy admissions interviews. These interviews follow the Multiple Mini-Interview (MMI) format, and make up a very important part of our admissions process. The Faculty is calling for alumni volunteer interviewers to help us select the very best students for the Class of 2023!

The 2019 MMI dates are:
- Saturday, May 4, 2019
- Sunday, May 5, 2019

The MMIs will take place in the Pharmaceutical Sciences Building. Interviewers must be able to commit to one full day of interviewing from 7:15 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Mandatory online training will be provided for all interviewers in advance of their scheduled interview shift. Orientation, breakfast, and lunch will be provided on the interview day.

Apply to be an interviewer by filling out the application form here. Deadline is March 31, 2019.
